Festive Fall Decorating with Chris and Dana

Saturday October 3, 2015 at Plantopia

9:30-10:30 Free Admission.

If you were to ask Chris H. Olsen what Fall means to him? His response might be: Halloween! Thanksgiving! Fall Festivals! Parties! Oh Boy!!

We all know Autumn is Chris' favorite season, not only because of the cooler temperatures, but because of the varied types and styles of décor he gets to use.

Helping Chris today will be Plantopia's floral design expert, Dana Pankovich. Together they will show you how to create your own amazing Autumn décor. Learn how to "WOW" the neighbors as you decorate your homes interior and exterior using heirloom pumpkins, gourds and misc. décor items. Chris and Dana will show you how to beautify your front door and porches with gorgeous wreaths, creative custom containers and much more.

Chris' energy will be high, so come out and enjoy yourself and have some fun!

Fresh Veggies Anyone??

Saturday October 10, 2015 at Plantopia

9:30-10:30 Free Admission

The key to growing vegetables in the Fall is making sure the soil is still warm enough to support their growth.

Greg Fontenot, Plantopia's nursery manager, will be discussing which plants are suitable for Fall gardening. He will also be talking about the proper timing for seed planting and starters.

Why limit your growing season to just the spring? Come ask questions and learn how you can enjoy tasty veggies even in the Fall.
